Confirmation candidates' reflections on how the Gifts of the Holy Spirit would Strengthen and Change Life

STRENGTH

Selflessness, share my gifts

Trust in God

Recognize God in our life

Engaged in service with those who need it most

New perspectives. Keep an open mind.

Growth in your own faith and help other grow

Temperance

Have faith in God

My bond with God will be strengthened, from this my faith will be lengthened.

The Gifts of the Holy Spirit will help hold the bond together.

Going to Church and Helping others changes lives
Being helpful and volunteering gives the full experience
It brings you closer to God
Prayers do come true
Praying every day strengthens your faith
Going to Mass changes your view on God
It influences you towards being a better person
Which makes your life better

Holy Spirit help me see
The Gifts that God has sent to me
Give me courage not to fail
And live my life to best avail
Help me follow the truest path
And never be subject to God's wrath
Holy Spirit hear my plea
Make me the best "me" I can be

Spiritual growth through Confirmation

Confirmation is accepting the Lord as Savior

Now is the time to be on your best behavior

No need to fuss

Just let the Holy Spirit guide us

Don't get discouraged

The Holy Spirit gives us Understanding, Reverence and Courage

Ask for Wisdom on bended knee

Right Judgement and Knowledge is our plea

The Holy Spirit; a gift to possess

Courage, or Knowledge thinking their God is the best

In our faith, we see our God as the right judgement to abide by and choose the right path

Teach me to be better Catholic

Dear God,
Give me the wisdom to do your work in this crazy world.
Help me to completely understand how to live a life like Jesus Christ, help me to see the difference and always make the right decisions.
With your help, give me the courage to express my religion despite outside pressure.
To have the knowledge & willingness to continue learning.
Let me live with reverence that God will be a focus in my life & that I will continue to be type of person God wants me to be his eyes.

Knowing that I will never be alone that He will always be by my side and will provide.
That every time I become discouraged
he will provide me with courage.
That every time I have a need
he will be there indeed.
That whenever I feel like I am in a downward slide
He will be my guide.

Every journey needs a guide.
We have the Holy Spirit by our side.
We must listen and be open to what the Holy Spirit ask.
We have to be brave and embrace this lifelong task.

The Holy Spirit changes your life
It help you to work through your strife
It will also strengthen you
It will guide you towards the right thing to do

Dear Lord,
Please give me wisdom to appreciate the world around us, to show understanding of our Lord by going to Mass and reading the bible, lead me to follow by word and example.
Please help me to have the Courage to do the right thing when others aren't, to have the Knowledge to Understand the Catholic way.
Help me to go to You when I need someone to guide me, and to lead by Your example.
Amen

Holy Spirt give us guidance.
Provide insight to know the difference between right and wrong.
Strengthen us to face our fears.
